comprising Government budgetary support and institutional finance, such as LIC, GIC, Scheduled Commercial Banks, EPF, Housing Finance Companies, HUDCO, NHB, etc., during the 9th Five Year Plan period will be of the order of Rs. 52,000 crores, out of which Rs. 34,000 crores will be for urban housing. The gap in resources would need to be bridged through investment in the private sector and individual efforts.

Funds for Urban Water Supply and Sanitation

1475. SHRI K. RAHMAN KHAN: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) what is the total projected financial requirement in the Urban Water Supply and Sanitation sectors;

(b) the quantum of funds to be earmarked during the Ninth Five Year Plan for these sectors; and

(c) whether Government have any plans to invite private sector participation to meet the requirement of these sectors?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN AFFAIRS & EMPLOYMENT & MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (DR. U. VENKATESWARLU): (a) and (b) The Working Group constituted by the Planning Commission for formulation of 9th Five Year Plan (1997-2002) in respect of Urban Water Supply and Sanitation has assessed a requirement of Rs. 51284.20 crores for the sub-sector during the 9th Five Year Plan. Accordingly, Planning Commission has been requested for consideration and provision of adequate outlay in the Ninth Pl*an* which has not yet been finalised by the Planning Commission.

(c) It is the policy of the Government to encourage private investment in the infrastructural sector. However, as the water supply and sanitation is a State subject, it is mainly for the State Governments and Urban Local Bodies to take a view in the matter.

Migration from villages to cities

1476. SHRI O.P. KOHLI: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the respective percentage of population of the urban and rural areas, out of the total population of the country;

(b) what measures Government are taking to check migration of population from villages to the cities; and

(c) to what extent these measures have proved effective?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN AFFAIRS & EMPLOYMENT & MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (DR. U. VENKATESWARLU): (a) The percentages of population of the urban and rural areas out of the total population in the country were at 25.71 and 74.29 respectively as per 1991 census.

(b) The Government of India has adopted a two-pronged approach to deal with the problems of migration of population from villages to the cities. These arc (i) development of rural areas and upgradion of the living conditions of the rural poor through a number of rural development and employment generation schemes such as Jawahar Rozgar Yojana (JRY), Integrated Rural Development Programme (IRDP), Million Well Scheme (MWS), Employment Assurances Scheme (EAS), Development of Women & Children in Rural areas (DWCRA), Training of Rural Youth for Self-Employment (TRYSEM), Drought Prone Areas Programme (DPAP), Desert Development Programme (DDP), Rural Water Supply etc.; and (ii) development of regional growth centres to enable them to emerge as places of economic growth and employment opportunities for surrounding rural hinterlands through the scheme of Integrated Development of Small and Medium Towns (IDSMT).

(c) Since migration from villages to cities depend on a number of factors such as prosperity-pull, prosperity-push and poverty push and there have been no studies to evaluate the impacts of rural development programmes and IDSMT scheme on migration, it is not possible to comment as to what extent these measures have proved effective to check migration although as development programmes, they are known to have beneficial impacts on the villages and towns covered by them.

Promotion of low-cost housing

1477. SHRIMATI JAYANTI PATNAIK: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(b) if so, the steps taken to popularise and promote low-cost housing in every state; and

(c) (he details of the funds earmarked for the purpose for the Ninth Five Year Plan?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN AFFAIRS & EMPLOYMENT & MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (DR. U. VENKATESWARLU): (a) In order to provide affordable shelter, the National Housing Policy seeks to promote use of appropriate and energy saving building materials and cost effective construction technologies.

(b) Various research & development institutions arc engaged in developing many innovative options leading to cost reduction with durability. With a view to applying the results of research at the field level. Government has established a National Network of Building Centres through HUDCO. These Centres are provided with Central Government subsidy and HU.DCO loans. Some of the well performing Centres are also provided with KfW grant for purchase of machinery and equipment.

The Government also set tip the Building Materials & Technology Promotion Council in 1990 with a view to facilitate the transfer of proven cost-effective technologies from lab to land and promotion of waste-based building materials and wood substitutes. The Council is engaged in indentifying and bridging the gaps in large scale commercial exploitation of such proven cost effective technologies and is making efforts to strngthen the research-market link by taking various promotional measures.

With a view to inducing the entcrprcnuers for manufacturing cost-effective building materials, the Central Government has given various excise and customs duly concessions for production of materials by utilising various industrial and agricultural wastes.

(c) The Ninth Five Year Plan has not been finalised so far.
